

The following quote by Marge Kennedy, embodies the “first to do everything” in our family. It speaks truth to power as it so vividly describes the foundation and path that Lois Jean Hart laid down for all of her siblings. She was constantly illuminating the path that she wanted others to follow.

“

In truth a family is what you make it. It is made strong, not by number of heads counted at the dinner table, but by the rituals you help family members create, by the memories you share, by the commitment of time, caring, and love you show to one another, and by the hopes for the future you have as individuals and as a unit.
